WORLD RENOWNED UNIVERSITY PARTNERS

University of Greenwich (UOG)

University of Greenwich (UOG) can trace its roots back to 1890, founded as Woolwich Polytechnic and later awarded university status in 1992. The University has a long history in the field of education and has three campuses in south east London and Kent within a progressive learning environment supported by modern and hi-tech facilities.

Today, it has 1,200 programmes including some of the more popular choices of Law, Nursing, Business, and Engineering. The University has been acknowledged by the sector and its peers to be a silver rated provider of higher education according to the 2017 Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF). UOG is also the proud recipient of The Queen's Anniversary Prize for Higher and Further Education 2015, awarded for innovative research and development carried out by Greenwich's Natural Resources Institute within the Faculty of Engineering & Science.

University of Sunderland

University of Sunderland

University of Sunderland (UOS) has been providing higher education since 1901 and is proud to be an innovative, forward-thinking university with high standards of teaching, research and support. It is located in Sunderland in the North East of England. The University can trace its root back to 1901 when its predecessor, Sunderland Technical College, was established as a municipal training college. It gained university status in 1992 and develops into a research active university. UOS aims to enhance the learning experience of its students as well as its academic standing of the institution as a seat of higher learning and scholarship.

Academic programmes are at the core of the University's commitment to producing well-rounded graduates. The Guardian ranks its Hospitality, Event Management & Tourism as 4th best in the country, while Nursing is ranked 5th best. Other highly-ranked majors in the Guardian league tables are Business, Management & Marketing, Accounting & Finance, Mechanical Engineering and Fashion & Textiles.

Troy University

Troy University is a comprehensive public university that is located in Troy Alabama, United States. It was founded on February 26, 1887 as Troy State Normal School within the Alabama State University System. It is the flagship university of the Troy University System with its main campus enrolment of 6,998 students and the total enrolment of all Troy University campuses of 19,579. Troy University is regionally accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACS) to award associate, baccalaureate, master's, education specialist, and doctoral degrees. Today, the University serves the educational needs of students in four Alabama campuses, sixty teaching sites in 17 U.S. States and 11 countries. Troy University's graduates number more than 100,000 alumni representing all 50 states and from numerous foreign countries. Troy University is known as Alabama's International University for its extensive international program in attracting foreign students from around the world.

University of Southern Queensland

University of Southern Queensland (USQ) has forged a reputation as one of Australia's leading providers of on-campus and online education programmes in Australia. In less than fifty years, USQ have become a prominent multi-campus teaching and research institution providing education worldwide. Woven into the fabric of USQ is the vision and determination of many University and community members who, over the years, have been instrumental in implementing expansion and growth, shaping what we see today.

Gained full university status in 1992, the University has changed dramatically in many ways since then, including the expansion of Postgraduate programmes and establishing significant branch campuses.
